Newberry Secretary of Navy.
Washington, Dec. 1.—Beginning today the navy of the United States has a new official head. He is Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, formerly assistant secretary of the navy, who has acted as secretary since the retiring secretary, Victor Metcalf of California, was incapacitated by illness.

The home of the new secretary is in Detroit, Mich. He is very wealthy, having inherited a large fortune from his father, and is interested in many railroads and corporations. He is a graduate of Yale university.

Mr. Newberry has been interested in naval affairs for many years. He was one of the organizers of the Michigan state naval brigade, acting as landsman in 1895, and as lieutenant and navigator in 1897-8. He obtained a commission in the United States navy as lieutenant in May, 1898, and served throughout the Spanish-American war on the Yosemite. Mr. Newberry was appointed assistant secretary of the navy by President Roosevelt in 1905.

Herbert L. Satterlee, of New York, it is understood, has been tendered the position of assistant secretary of the navy, to take the place of Truman H. Newberry.

Kentucky Feud Resulted in Double Murder.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 2.—A sheriff's posse was searching the mountains in Laurel county yesterday for William Tyree and Robert Barnes, who are charged with the murder last Sunday of William Barnes and Mrs. Emma Taylor. The double murder was the result of a long-standing family feud between the Whitaker Mize and Barnes families, in which many people have been slain on both sides.

Suicide Prominent Cotton Buyer.
Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 2.—C. G.
Cowie, formerly a well-known cotton buyer, and prominent in Memphis social business, was found dead with a bullet hole in his temple late this afternoon. Cowie's body was found in a locked room in his residence on Union avenue. The police declare it was a case of suicide.

Mr. Cowie was 46 years old and married Miss Mary Pierce, of Greenville, Miss., several years ago. He was widely known in cotton circles in the south.

Wrecked by Defective Switch.
Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 5.—Passenger train No. 43, on the Rock Island railroad, while running at a high rate of speed near Kear's station, 12 miles east of this city, split a switch at that point, derailing the engine, baggage and express car, combination smoker and one chair car. Two train-men were killed and two others injured.

Taft With Tar Heels.
New York, Dec. 7.—President Elect Taft the guest of honor at the dinner here tonight of the North Carolina society of this city. He promised to attend and deliver an address on a topic of interest and importance to the south.

The subject of Judge Taft's speech the tariff in its relation to the industries of the southern states.

Another Death by Feud.
Trague, Tenn., Dec. 7.—A feud of years' standing is believed to be responsible for the killing yesterday of Dr. Cullen M. Collangen, a physician of this place, who was found on the railroad tracks near his home.

Sam, Gus and Jeff Moody, brothers, are under arrest charged with the killing, and Levi Jackson is charged with being an accessory.

Killed by Brother-in-Law.
Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 8.—B. M.
O'Rear, a well-known citizen, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon at Carbon Hill, Ala., in Walker county, by J. T. Wakefield, his brother-in-law.
The affair is said to have been brewing for several days, and resulted from family troubles.

Trial Carmack Murderers Postponed.
Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 2.—On application by the defense, the trial of Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, Robin Cooper and ex-Sheriff John D. Sharp, indicted for the murder of former United States Senator B. W. Carmack, has been postponed until the January term of court. The case had been set for trial December 1.
